

Gil was the Pianist, Assistant Conductor and Arranger for The Airmen of Note, the USAF Premiere Jazz Ensemble, performing for Presidents Nixon, Ford and George H. W. Bush, and at thousands of concerts and festivals around the world. His playing and arrangements were featured on numerous Airmen of Note and Symphony in Blue recordings. Gil worked with legends including Tony Bennett, Sarah Vaughn, Joe Williams and Rosemary Clooney, and toured with the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra.

gil cray

Gil is a multitalented musician. As a pianist, his versatility enables him to provide a soloist's refined elegance, sensitive accompaniment for a vocalist or the rhythmic drive to a big band. His students benefit greatly from Gil's years of experience as an arranger and performer.

Gil teaches Piano, Electronic Keyboard and Chord Theory at Roberson's Music