

Since relocating to Fredericksburg, Jeremy has continued his horn studies at Peabody Conservatory, studying privately under Peter Landgren of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and currently studies under Martin Hackleman of the National Symphony Orchestra and formerly of the Canadian Brass and the Empire Brass. Jeremy currently plays regularly with the Washington Sinfonietta, Piedmont Symphony Orchestra and the Richmond Symphony.

Jeremy Cucco teaches French Horn at Roberson's Music.

Jeremy Cucco

While in high school, Jeremy won the first-chair horn position in the Arkansas All-State Band and received scholarship offers from numerous world-class schools. Opting to stay in Arkansas, he continued his collegiate studies at Arkansas Tech and Arkansas State Universities pursuing a degree in Music Performance and pedagogy. While in college, he was the first and only Freshman student to win the Arkansas Tech Concerto Competition and also won substitute horn positions with the Arkansas Symphony, Northeast Arkansas Symphony, Fort Smith Symphony, Pine Bluff Symphony and Memphis Symphony Orchestras. Additionally, he was invited to the Hot Springs Music Festival and served on the Interlochen Summer Music Camp faculty.