

Gabriel Leonhard...

Gabriel has extensive experience in the studio, having performed on many releases worldwide as well as his own album, Secret Whispers. He has toured with various bands throughout the U.S. and Europe

...began studying the violin at age 6 in California under the Suzuki method. He continued his studies in New York with Rosemary Johnson. He was a Violin Performance Major at Eastern University and is listed on Who's Who Among American College Students. Gabriel played with the Hebrew University Orchestra, with members of the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra, and recently as principal violinist with the Rappahannock Pops.

Gabriel Leonhard teaches violin at Roberson's Music.