

Heather McMurray...

Heather McMurray teaches Private and Class Voice and Beginning Piano at Roberson's Music

... loves to sing and teach voice lessons! She earned her undergraduate and master's degrees from Brigham Young University in Vocal Performance. While at BYU, Heather taught both private voice lessons and group voice classes. In addition, Heather was also an assistant teacher to Clayne Robison's widely acclaimed "Vocal Boot Camp" program. Heather has also coached musical groups for opera scenes, choral ensembles and small groups. Heather continues to draw on this wide range of experience as part of her teaching.

Heather believes that anyone can improve their singing if they practice and have the desire, and that her students often surprise themselves at the beautiful singing they are capable of. She has helped many students find confidence through a more healthy, easy, and natural sound while solidifying breathing and basic vocal technique. Heather tries to bring out the unique beauty in every student's voice; regardless of vocal style or experience.

Having performed in numerous solo recitals, opera scenes and musical productions including The Messiah, Gianni Schicci, The Old Maid and the Thief, The Secret Garden, and West Side Story, Heather also has extensive choral experience. She sang and toured with BYU Singers under the direction of Ronald Staheli throughout her voice studies. Most recently, Heather sang and soloed with the Orange County Mormon Choral Organization in Southern California.

Additionally, Heather has studied piano for more than twenty years and is a capable accompanist.
