

Jan spent her high school years at the Music Academy of West Santa Barbara, CA. She attended Occidental College and graduated from Arizona State University with a BA in German and French and an MA in German and Secondary Education. She completed degree requirements in Music from the University of Mary Washington.

Jan White

Jan was a member of the Phoenix Symphony Orchestra for 17 years and a member of the Richmond Symphony for 21 years. She was the Concertmaster of the Mary Washington College Community Orchestra for 14 years and Concertmaster of the Rappahannock Pops Orchestra for 2 years. She is the Director of the Colonial Chamber Players String Trio/Quartet and free-lances as a member of the Richmond Musician's Union. Jan initiated and developed the strings program in the Fredericksburg City Schools beginning in 1974, a program she spearheaded until 2003. She is presently teaching foreign languages in the City Schools and also performs in various musical groups around the Commonwealth of Virginia .

Jan White teaches Violin, Viola and Piano and Roberson's Music